

CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION FROM THIS SERIES:

WEEK 1: WONDER, WANDER, RECONSIDER

We all see life through a window ... a frame of reference that helps explain what we experience. We often wonder because our frames of reference don't provide us with all of the answers. What do you do with the big mysteries in life—the mysteries that won't resolve no matter how much you explore them?

THINK ABOUT THESE ...

1. What do you wonder?
2. What is something you use to wonder about but don't anymore? In what way did your frame of reference change to resolve what once seemed mysterious?
3. Think about a time when you met someone who was convinced their frame of reference for making sense of the world was correct, but you didn't agree. How did you respond to that person? To what extent did that interaction cause you to re-examine your own assumptions?
4. What kind of framework for making sense of the world did you grow- up with—religious, academic, scientific, moralistic, or something else?
How did that framework shape you view the world?
5. Read Hebrews 12:1–3: Was there ever a time in your life when your faith was fixed on a pastor, church, experience, circumstance, or the Bible? If so, what happened?
6. Do you need to examine your current frame of reference?
What is one thing you can do this week to “fix your eyes on Jesus”?
How can Nashville Road Community Church support you?

CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION FROM THIS SERIES: THINKING REVOLUTIONARY ...

When it comes to faith, if you wondered and then wandered,
here's something to consider:

What was the faith you lost fixed on and fastened to?

What is the faith you have fixed on our fastened to?

Remember: God showed up on our side of the frame to serve as your frame of reference.

READ AND THINK ABOUT THESE WORDS (MEMORIZE THEM IF YOU CAN!):

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12 verses 1-2